*This publication will never be effortless to get started on reading through but very entertaining to read through. It normally is not going to expense too much. I discovered this publication from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

Hon. James R. Garfield was the guest of the evening, and spoke on The Federal Regulation of Commerce. The following is the address of E. M. Irish in response to the toast, Abraham Lincoln: Mr. Toastmaster and Gentlemen: The committee of the club have asked me to talk about President Lincoln. It cannot be fitting for me to relate the facts of his life, because for years - even the crickets under the hearthstones have sung them to the American people. There is always a consolation prize for the fellow who is drawn for an after dinner talk. He may, if he pleases, be rambling in his remarks. The audience are generally surprised if he is not; and he need not be logical. The audience are always surprised - and often pained - if he tries to be. I will promise not to spring logical surprises on you to-night. I will only try to play cricket a little. What is the reason for this fireside friendship with a president? Why do the people love to talk about Lincoln? Why has the committee asked me to speak of him to-night? For I cannot say anything that will be new to you. Perhaps I cannot do better than to relate an incident, and explain its meaning as well as I can. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
