Despite her protests and warning that such a separation could cost us our marriage, Ada is persuaded by her husband and children to go to London. Ada's traumas, losses, failures and successes are very sensitively narrated in Ada in London. It is the story of one woman's sacrifice and attempt to serve her family with love. In addition, Ada aimed to retain her human dignity, her spiritual relationship with God, and her right as a woman to some happiness. Does she achieve any of these goals?
