Lovers of Freedom! friends of Progress! advocates of Universal Right! throughout the entire thinking world, --on this, the closing year of the nineteenth century, impends the shadow of a great, A Terrirle Crime. A crime perpetrated against the aggregate of humanity; for its far-reaching consequences will be ultimately manifested in a more serious blow at liberty and national privileges in every clime than it has hitherto been the misfortune of the cosmopolitan to observe and deplore--a crime unparalleled in the sombre history of this distressful globe and approximated only by the indefensible Peruvian and Mexican Conquests, subjugations, though of a cruel race, disgracing even a period over three centuries removed; a crime that only instant, united and, perhaps, forcible action can assuredly avert. This crime is the political extinction of the South African Republic and the Orange Free State by the monarchial power of Great Britain;--the utter absorption of their devoted people, their great territory and their present abounding wealth; tr say nothing of their incalculable future advantages; into the immensity of an overswollen and arrogant Empire, which has for centuries defied, threatened, intermeddled with, or enslaved the other countries of the world; which has like a...
