Far lovelier than the queen, declared Bardas, and of a far nobler nature and spirit. He restored the picture to his heart, and made farewell. I shall yet storm the Court for your life, and flout the personal peril of so doing. But if nought avail against her and my terrible brother, then--then, old friend, do not forget me and Theodora when you come to Heaven. 2 Romanus stood for a little while when the prattler had departed. There s a lie thrusting its poisonous tongue in my affairs, thought he. And how to fight a lie with both hands tied behind me--who can do that? He turned from the table and went to the window. Moonlight rained silver over the sea, while far away, Prinkipos, amid the Isles of the Princes, rose faint and dim. Here stood the general in the darkest moment of his fortunes, stunned with the horror of what he had heard, yet hardly believing it, while in his heart burnt a new and strange emotion. Nothing had, indeed, been further than real love from his mind when he spoke the idle words that now threatened to destroy him; but since they were spoken, since he had actually been called to answer them and stand before the wronged Eudocia, he was, in truth, fired by a fervour of passion. Into his virgin heart it stormed tempestuous and wonderful--the revelation of woman; but it was seen and felt on the...
