Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Lecture on the Present Attitude of England Towards the United States: As Determined by Personal Observation Ladies and Gentlemen: - You will not expect to be entertained to-night with the novel and thrilling incidents of foreign travel. I appear before you for no such purpose, but to report as well as I am able, the results of my observations, during a sojourn of three months in Great Britain, of the existing state of British opinion and feeling toward this country, and to assign what seem to me to be its causes. I enter on the performance of this task, with a strong conviction of the importance of what I have undertaken to do; for he who shall at this time successfully discuss the subject I have just indicated, will throw a great deal of light on the present and prospective condition of Britain, and on her relations to the cause of freedom all over the world. He will also present to the American people a higher and a juster view of the value and...
